Discover Why Families Choose Seattle Christian School!

Open House

Attending Open House at SCS is the perfect opportunity to meet the faculty, staff, superintendent and tour the facility. Discover how students thrive academically, grow spiritually, soar in athletics, and excel in math, science and the fine and performing arts! Learn about the rich history and mission of providing students an exceptional and unique educational experience at Seattle Christian School.

Personal Tours

SCS invites you to visit our beautiful K-12 campus! Prospective parents can get a glimpse of teachers and students in action at Seattle Christian! Contact our Admissions Office to arrange a time to accommodate your schedule. We look forward to meeting you!

Warrior for a Day (Grades 7-12)

Attending a school day at SCS provides prospective students with an authentic experience. Your student will be hosted by a current SCS student based on gender, age and interests. Future students see firsthand what Seattle Christian is all about by observing classroom discussions, meeting teachers, walking the halls, attending chapel and more! Through a visitation, prospective students can be confident in their decision to choose SCS.
